

Dear Valued Members & Guests,

2009 MDAA/ADIA CHRISTMAS FUNCTION

Further to the preliminary notification given in reference to the combined MDAA / ADIA Christmas dinner and dance, we are pleased to advise that this will be held at the

"Golden Ballroom"
Sheraton Hotel
Saturday December 5, 2009
6.00pm - 12.00pm
Dress Code: Formal

This year we will be offering a buffet menu, with a fantastic array of food choices to suit every taste.

If you have any special dietary requirements, please provide the relevant information upon confirmation of your attendance.

The drinks menu will consist of champagne, red and white wines, full and light strength beers and soft drinks. Spirits will not be covered within the drinks menu, however they will be available from the bar upon request on a cash basis.

Darryl Silvester will be creating that magical sound of 1950's Hollywood with live Piano/Keyboard instrumental music playing the old musical and cinematic hits from the bygone era, and DJ music will be provided after 9pm. A short floor show will be provided by the Cabaret Girls and Father Christmas has also agreed to pop in and will be handing out our prizes for the evening, so we expect to have an enjoyable evening of frivolity, fun, companionship and good cheer in the true spirit of the Christmas and the Drilling Industry.

We will be having a Hollywood glamour theme, and the dress code for the night will be formal so dress to impress! The cost to attend this function is $160.00 per person.

There will be a number of individual round tables with seating arrangements of ten (10) per table. As a company, you may choose to take a complete table or a number of tables. Those attending as an individual or in a number of less than the total table seating capacity will be allocated seating with others alike, although you may request to sit with people you know to be attending. Requests for seating will be accommodated where possible.

It is worthy to note we intend capping the total attendance for the night at 400 people, so we ask that you confirm your intentions early in order to avoid disappointment. The final date for confirming your attendance is November 27, 2009. Billing will be done immediately upon confirmation and we ask that you pay this account prior to the event.

For those of you inviting along guests etc, the attached electronic copy of invitation can be printed off, then simply write your company name and the respective guest's details in the space provided. We do ask that you utilise the Confirmation Response Form as the means of confirming your attendance by completing and returning it to Cathy Higgs by means of fax or email using the contact details shown on the form.

Areas of both undercover parking and street parking are available at the Sheraton, and there is also a 24 hour taxi stand at the Sheraton's main entrance.

An accommodation package has also been arranged for those who wish to stay at the Sheraton. For more information, please refer to the enclosed accommodation package flyer. All accommodation bookings should be made directly through the Sheraton Hotel, please do not send any accommodation requests to the Secretariat as they will not be confirmed.

Once you have received confirmation of your registration, your tickets to the function will be issued. Please note that tickets will not be issued unless payment is received prior to the event. Please ensure that you present your tickets on the night in order to gain entry to the function and so you can be entered in the door prize – non ticket holders may be refused entry.

In reference to confirming your intent on the night it is asked that you please respond by before Friday November 27, 2009 using the enclosed form.

We look forward to seeing you all there.
